Summary: "There is a special charm in places that have not been visited by those around you, and you chronicle the conditions there.

There is a special place on your travel map for places that you wonder how you found yourself, that are not known but that you somehow magically identify with - and you have a great time because you find a lot in common in the mentality, the landscapes, the food and the people.

Something like that, was the journey on the paths of the Urartians, in the depths of Türkiye, near the border with Iran and Azerbaijan." the journalist writes.

Which cities/events/products are promoted?: Van, Agri, Iğdir
